NOW ON BALE, IMPERIAL QUARTO. HAND OHINESE alice Mary, Beitigh bk., 630, Sampson, Ju'y 18,  ${f DIC'}{}'{f IONARY}.$ WITH THE PUSTI AND MANDABIN, PRONUNCIATION.

Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the newwords which the Chinese have of late years been | Cedar Croft, British bark, 1,029, Fleet, July 8, compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are hers given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises Elisabeth, Garman back, 417, Kock, July 17, for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given Else, German brig, 287, A Paul, July 18, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography G. H. Wappaus, Brit. bk., 533, Hanson, July 17, displays the success of an attempt to make the attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterised Chinese nublications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration: Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Valkyrien, British bark, 498, Gower, July 15, Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammers and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherte pub-For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. parties resident in England and interested

China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-It comprises upwards of two thousand large 4 Vols. IMPERIAL QUARTO, Price. $20.
